Posta
FAROE ISLANDS

Dear stamp collector,

Not many of us could imagine at the beginning of the New Year that the year of 2020 would be all about the coronavirus. Covid-19 developed into a pandemic and it has ravaged most of the world with tragic and distressing consequences. Most of the countries of the world have taken its precautions and many countries were on lock down during the worst months.

The Faroe Islands also closed its borders to a part of the outside world, but we at Posta Stamps have been at work as usual. We have had to hold back some outgoing mail as a number of countries were closed, but now the business is running again as usual.

You can order our products in the web shop on the website www.stamps.fo, send us an email, a letter or give us a call. We dispatch as usual quickly and efficiently.

Due to the risk of spreading the coronavirus, all spring and summer exhibitions were cancelled. Already now, we can announce that some of the autumn and winter exhibitions have been cancelled. We very much regret this, but we have to adapt to the changing circumstances - and of course, we hope that we can see you in the coming year or maybe later this year.

Otherwise, we hope that you and your loved ones are well and not too affected by the situation. Take care of yourself - maybe we will see each other again soon - somewhere out there.

*Svanbjörg Manai,
Director of Posta Stamps*

Christmas 2020

The artist Suffía Nón has designed this year's Christmas Seals

The Christmas Seals 2020 tell the story of the first Christmas. How Joseph and Mary travelled from Nazareth to Bethlehem where Jesus was born and placed in a manger, because there was no room at the inn. The shepherd in the field and the three sages are also depicted on the seals.

The Christmas seals have a Faroese tinge, since the Faroese landscape is used as background and the attentive viewer immediately sees that Mary wears a Faroese sweater with the traditional star pattern and that Joseph wears a Faroese hat and a Faroese traditional coat. The shepherds in the field also wear Faroese hats and one of the sages wears the Faroese festive hat, called stavnhetta – a hat with two rising tips - and a long homespun traditional coat.

All sale profits go to The Christmas Seal Foundation, which supports children and youth activities in the Faroe Islands.

Price: 30 DKK

Book: The first Christmas

Posta has also published a small book with drawings from the Christmas Seals. The text in the book, which is in both Faroese and English, tells the story of the first Christmas. It is suited for children up to 7 years of age.
