Franking Labels 2026

Posta Celebrates 50 Years

On 1 April 2026, the Faroese postal service celebrates its 50th anniversary. The occasion is marked with four franking labels showing the history of the Faroese postal service: a handwritten letter, a mailbox, an electric postal van, and a parcel locker – all symbols of how the postal service has connected the people of the Faroe Islands for five decades.

100 Years

The Scout Movement

The Scout movement began in the Faroe Islands in 1926 and celebrates its 100th anniversary this year. Rooted in community, responsibility, and outdoor adventures, it gives around 1,000 Faroese Scouts the chance to explore, learn new skills, and build friendships and memories that last a lifetime.

Famous Pilots II

The German pilot Wolfgang von Gronau visited Tjørøyrí four times, and in 1930 he became the first to fly directly from Europe to New York via the Faroe Islands and Iceland, where he was greeted with admiration and cheers. The American pilot Parker Cramer landed in Vágur in 1931 during his attempt to cross the Atlantic, but his journey ended tragically when he later disappeared in a violent storm.

The Abandoned Village on Kunoy

Skarð

Skarð on Kunoy was a small, isolated village marked by hardship and tragic accidents at sea. After seven men drowned in 1913, the village could not survive and was finally abandoned in 1919. The poet Símun av Skarði, author of the Faroese national anthem, came from this village.

Fafnir and Fenrir

Mythical Creatures

Fafnir, driven by greed, became a dragon guarding a treasure – a warning of desire's power. Fenrir, son of Loki, embodies chaos and is destined to devour Odin at Ragnarök. Both reflect the forces of nature and humanity's eternal struggle against destructive impulses.

Town and Village Scenes

Christmas Seals

Faroese artist Fríða Laksáfoss has designed this year's Christmas seals. She is inspired by Faroese towns and villages with their colourful, historic houses. Her detailed and vibrant style captures both the architecture and the surrounding nature.

Three charming Christmas cards with motifs from the seals are also available. They show the churches in Tórshavn, Sandavágur and Kívívk, and are sold in sets with envelopes.
